

Attention Landlords

It is your responsibility to maintain copies of your rental license and to renew each license prior to its expiration date. The expiration date, along with your license number, can be found on the approved license that you receive each year in the mail following payment of required fees. You can find more information regarding this topic by reading Chapter 62 of the Town Code.